See the first sentence of the Methods section of Rohs, 2008.
Basically, we found we had all the data needed for 513 people; not sure why Lockey only used 512.

Subject: An Extra Individual?

Lockey et al. (1984) reports data on 512 individuals in the original study. The most current spreadsheet for the 1980 groups has 513 entries. Did someone get cloned?
